Re: Final Coat anti-corrosion device

Dear Mr. Peek:

On behalf of the Commissioner of Competition, Sheridan Scott, I am writing to advise you that in accordance with section 22(1) of the Competition Act, the Commissioner has discontinued the inquiry concerning the alleged misleading representations engaged in by you and Canadian Auto Preservation Inc. regarding the promotion of an anti-corrosion device - Final Coat.

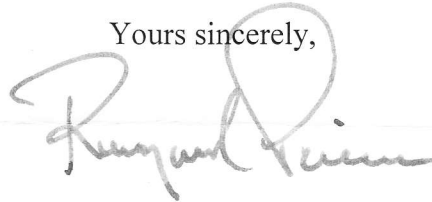

Our Investigation into this matter revealed that you made performance claims to the effect that the anti-corrosion device - Final Coat could help inhibit corrosion on the entire surface of new or pre-owned vehicles. These claims were not based on adequate and proper tests as required pursuant to subsection 74.01(1)(b) of the Competition Act.

At the Competition Bureau's request, you have conducted subsequent tests in order to assess the performance and the efficacy of the Final Coat anti-corrosion device. The results demonstrated that the Final Coat could help inhibit corrosion on the entire surface of new or pre-owned vehicles.

On the basis of the foregoing, the Commissioner has decided to discontinue the inquiry into this matter. As required by subsection 22(2) of the Act, the Commissioner has submitted a report in writing to the Minister of Industry advising her of the discontinuance of this inquiry, and will make public in generic form the fact that this inquiry has been discontinued.

Yours sincerely,
